

Ergonomic Mesh PU Leather Office Chair

RRP: $344.95

Perfect for the office or home office, the Black Executive Mesh Office Chair makes a world of difference for long sessions sitting at the desk. And it's got the smart, modern styling and uncommon comfort you're looking for in an office chair.

This office chair comes to us from Salvatore Angelotti, one of Australia's most respected names when it comes to top-class home and office furniture. Salvatore Angelotti is synonymous with quality, and this chair is no exception.

The chair is constructed with plush PU leather as well as a black mesh for superior comfort and no-fuss maintenance. A convenient gaslift makes height easily adjustable from 112.5cm to 121.5cm. And a handsome chrome base with 5 nylon castor wheels provide an easy way to rotate and wheel around.

Why put up with an uncomfortable chair? Upgrade to the Black Executive Mesh Office Chair from Salvatore Angelotti.
