

2 x Thai Boxing Punch Focus Gloves Kit Training Red & Black

RRP: $64.95

Perfect your punching techniques with a pair of these rugged Thai boxing mitts!

High quality Thai boxing mitts such like ours are commonly used by boxers and their trainers. In practice sessions, the trainers act as moving targets to develop the boxer's techniques and hone his skills. Made of tough PVC, our boxing mitts are built to take real punishment. Their extra-thick padding and shock-absorbing foam are designed to cushion impact and protect the hands and wrists from injury.

Not only can you improve your hooks, uppercuts, crosses and jabs with these great training must-haves, you will notice a marked increase in speed and an enhanced agility. You'll be able to practice both straight accurate punches as well as combination routines. There's never a worry that your mitts will slip off in the heat of your workout session. The sturdy elastic straps and finger slots on the top of the mitts will hold them safely in place.

Make every minute of your workout count. Order these great boxing mitts today and bring your performance and skills to whole new levels.
