

Kicking Boxing Sparring Shield & Punching Pad Mitts Combo

RRP: $264.95

Boost your kickboxing skills in the comfort of your own home with this fantastic new workout combo!

The sturdy sparring shield with its high-density foam padding is built to take a real beating. Your kickboxing skills will be enhanced with the enhanced level of resistance through the intense training made possible with our new fitness combo.

Designed for safe and reliable use, the padded grip bars on the shield give your sparring partner optimum control during even the most challenging workout. Not only will our super fitness combo increase your kicking and punching skills, you will notice an amazing improvement in focus, speed and agility.

This amazing addition to your training retinue will help you develop sharper techniques – better hooks, jabs and uppercuts are in your future! The focus mitts are nothing short of amazing. Practice straight and accurate punches as well as boxing combinations. Safety and reliability is part of the package. The finger slots on the backside of the mitts along with an elastic strap keep the mitts firmly and safely in place.

Whether your goal is competing in martial arts or kickboxing competitions or you just want a great cardio workout, our new sparring and punching mitts combo will serve you well!
