

Arthritis Gloves Compression Joint Finger Hand Wrist Support Brace - Large

Out of Stock: $24.95

Arthritis and hand injuries can make you feel miserable. Not only that, but the pain and stiffness can keep you from doing work that requires fine motor skills. Not anymore. With these cozy, comfy, arthritis gloves from Randy & Travis Machinery, your hands will feel like they're in the embrace of a warm hug. Stretchy Lycra fabric provides gentle compression, speeding healing blood flow to the injured area, while soft cotton cushions your hands in complete comfort.

With their open fingertips, these gloves allow you to do your normal work routine—gripping pens, typing in text on your computer, and operating touchscreen devices. Durable, yet easy to care for, these gloves should last for years under normal wear. Buy two pairs—one for home, one for work—so you'll never have to go without their natural, gentle pain relief for your hands.
