

Inflatable Car Back Seat Mattress Portable Travel Camping Air Bed Rest Sleeping

RRP: $99.95

For camping trips or for a last-minute dash out of town, this superb back-seat air mattress by Randy & Travis Machinery deserves a place in your car's boot all year long. Easy to store and carry, this comfortable—even luxurious—mattress turns your car's back seat into a temporary bed.

Using only your car's cigarette lighter charging port and the included air pump, you can have your bed ready within two minutes. With a capacity of 150 kilograms, two adults can sleep comfortably, making this an excellent addition to your car's emergency kit.

Made from top-quality PVC and soft, flocked material, this mattress provides all the comfort of a feather bed, yet takes up little space. Underneath, a T-shaped support allows you to extend the mattress over the back seat's floor space, providing extra room for two. Before you head out for your next weekend jaunt, order yours today.
