

Pine Wood Easel Artist Art Display Painting Shop Tripod Stand Wedding

RRP: $54.95

Have an artist in the house? Then you'll want to have one of these fine pinewood artist's easels from Randy & Travis Machinery. Perfect for either painting or displaying the final work, this easel features a sturdy tripod stand for solid support.

Adjustable and portable, this lightweight yet sturdy easel allows you to carry it from room to room—and even out-of-doors to paint nature in all its glory. With an adjustable back leg, as well as adjustable height, this easel accommodates artists of all sizes—even little ones.

Crafted from sustainably sourced, eco-friendly natural pine, this artist's easel is as durable as it is beautiful. It's moisture-resistant, corrosion-resistant, and wear-resistant, allowing you to use it for years to come. Hand-selected for high quality, the wood used to craft this easel is treated to ensure a long and useful life.

Highly trained craftsmen carve this exquisite wood into an easel worthy of display in your home—or as a workstation for your resident artist. Rounded edges add a safety feature to protect your little ones from accidental bumps into the easel's wooden frame. A raised outer lip keeps your art from slipping off, while high-quality steel nuts and bolts ensure stability. After you're done for the day, simply fold it up and store it in a closet.

If you or someone in your family loves to create works of art, this easel is a must. Buy yours today.
