

Wallpaper Flocking Simple Curves Non-woven Wall Paper Roll

RRP: $59.95

Bold, sleek, and chic. These words will come to mind after you transform your space with this exquisite wallpaper from Randy & Travis Machinery to your walls. Crafted with high-grade, non-woven materials, this retro yet modern curved design is the perfect way to bring a high-end aesthetic into any space.

It's so durable and easy to clean that you can scrub it using only a damp cotton cloth and moderate pressure. Arranged in calming curves, the neutral black, silver, and grey colours will accent any décor. Anti-mildew and waterproof, it'll stay looking luxe for years. Its noise reduction properties will create a quiet space wherever you install it. It's perfect for bedrooms, living rooms, or offices – anywhere you want to create a soothing space.

The manufacturing process used to create this wallpaper uses no formaldehyde. Instead, it uses 150-gramme microfiber, high-density foaming technology to protect your home environment from toxic gases. Make sure to order enough for each room the first time to avoid colour differences among batches. Refresh your space with calming curves. Order yours today.
