

Folding Collapsible Camping Table Caravan RV Heavy Duty Steel & Aluminium

RRP: $184.95

If you love to camp, go caravanning on the weekends, or just enjoy the outdoors at the beach or park, this heavy-duty aluminium and steel camping table by Randy & Travis Machinery is the perfect accessory for a perfect trip. Even though it's uber-sturdy, it folds up easily to store in your vehicle.

With a 100-kilogramme weight rating, this table can hold your portable stove or tabletop barbeque grill as well as your utensils and other accessories. Underneath, a storage net holds extra utensils, small coolers, cooking spray, and other smaller camping gear.

After your camping trip is over, simply store it in your garage or a wardrobe until the next time. Whether for yourself or the camping enthusiast in your life, this folding table is an essential piece of gear that you don't want to leave home without. Order yours today!
