

Modern Wall Clock Silent Non-Ticking Quartz Battery Operated Gold

RRP: $64.95

If you love Nordic style, this gorgeous wall clock by Randy & Travis Machinery is the perfect choice for any room in your house. Done in trendy rose gold / gold, this clock is as accurate as it is beautiful, thanks to its precise quartz movement. It runs silently, making it ideal for your living room, bedroom, study, or even your office at work. Its large numerals make it easy to read, even from afar.

Its elegant lines and charming design make it the focal point of whatever room you put it in. It's easy to install – it even comes with the hooks to hang it. It's powered by a regular AA battery – no special batteries needed. Its streamlined profile looks fantastic with mid-century modern, contemporary, or industrial-chic décor. It's a great gift for housewarmings, weddings, promotions, birthdays, or for the holidays as well. Its colour blends well with practically any colour palette at home or work. Don't miss this chance to add sleek Scandinavian style to your home or office. Order yours today!
