RRP: $149.95

If you love Mid-Century Modern design, this gorgeous bedside nightstand by Palermo is a must-have. Its streamlined design features the era's signature splayed pine legs, lending a whimsical, atomic look that's all the rage today. Its timeless look blends perfectly with today's contemporary décor, while its neutral white colour blends in beautifully with most rooms' colour palettes.

With two roomy drawers, you have plenty of room to store your favourite books, a flashlight (in case the power goes out), nighttime medications, or a stash of midnight snacks. Buy two so your room will have a symmetric, balanced look — and your partner can enjoy its convenience as well.

These tables look equally amazing in your living room or rumpus room to add a touch of retro charm to your room's décor.
