

Black Fire Pit Square Log Patio Garden Heater Outdoor Table Top BBQ Camping

RRP: $154.95

This industrial-chic fire pit from Randy & Travis Machinery is the perfect way to celebrate autumn's arrival. Crisp evenings are the perfect pairing as you, your family, and friends gather around its cozy warmth. Crafted from sturdy iron plate powder-coated in black, it looks as rugged as the outdoors itself. Pour your fuel of choice — timber or charcoal — inside and light it up. With its galvanised grill, it's all ready for your favourite BBQ foods. Incredible craftsmanship and solid design make it an ideal accessory for home exteriors of all styles.

Its deep bowl accommodates nearly a night's worth of fuel, while its sturdy latticed stand is engineered for lightweight portability for picnics on the beach or at the park. Heat resistant to 600 degrees Celsius, it can handle even the hottest fire. Its powder-coated exterior stands up to whatever weather Mother Nature throws at it. It's easy to clean and maintain, so it's a breeze to clean up after impromptu patio and garden parties. Don't miss out on all the fun this fall. Get yours today!
