RRP: $104.95

Love the look of vintage hexagonal tiles? Don't pass up the chance to get the look you love without the expense and mess of professional installation. With these self-adhesive hexagonal tiles from Randy & Travis Machinery, you can rock the trendy Mid-Century vibe in your home in hours, not days. With the look of costly ceramic tile minus the cost, you can cover more wall area for much less. They're perfect for DIYers – even beginners can handle installing them.

With only a cutter and ruler, you can install these gorgeous tiles. They're easy to clean and maintain – perfect for kitchen and bathroom sink splashbacks – even for caravan installs. Simply use a mild non-abrasive household cleaner and a damp sponge, wipe, and you'll restore their brand-new look. When it's time to change décor, just apply a heat source – a hairdryer will do – and simply pull the tiles off the wall or other surface. If you want to transform the look of a room without the expense, you need these tiles. Get yours today!
