

Large Rabbit Hutch with BASE Chicken Coop 2 Storey Guinea Pig Pet Cage House

RRP: $444.95

When you need to have ample space for your small pet but need its home to fit within a small footprint, you need to go upward. With this two-storey pet 'condo' by Randy & Travis Machinery, you'll provide that extra space without sacrificing a square metre more than necessary. Resting on four sturdy legs to provide adequate aeration underneath, this durable fir shelter will keep your pets safe while taking up only a little space.

Crafted from solid fir with an amber stain, this hutch will look amazing in your backyard or garden. Its rustic finish shows off the grain of the wood, while its durable construction and powder-coated wire mesh will protect your pets for years to come. It's waterproof and easy to assemble – and you can even use it to shelter two animals simply by separating each level. Pull-out trays and an easy-open roof make cleaning a breeze. Your pets deserve a home as lovely as your own. Get your two-storey hutch today!
