

Set of 4x 45cm Tolix Retro Reproduction Cafe Bar Stools - White

Out of Stock: $314.95

The Metal Vintage Pullup Stool is ready to serve your casual seating needs and all those times you need that extra bit of seating. That's why they call it a pullup stool: pull up and have a seat!

At 45cm-tall, this stool is great for impromptu coffee table chats, for pulling up alongside a couch, chair or ottoman, or for outdoor use around the patio table. It can even be used to set your drinks on in a pinch. It's small and very lightweight, meaning you can store it anywhere and move it from place to place effortlessly. And better yet, multiple stools can stack together for even more space-saving convenience.

The stool is made from a commercial-grade metal which is powder-coated in white to prevent corrosion and to add an extremely attractive sheen. This is the piece in your collection that will truly last and last for many years to come. And the stool's retro, industrial-inspired vintage design is certain to add plenty of style.

Don't delay — your anytime, anywhere seating solution is available at our everyday low price. Order your Metal Vintage Pullup Stool today.
